

Kalyn Siebert Appoints New Director of National Account Sales

Gatesville, TX – (February 12, 2019) – Kalyn Siebert has appointed Jerry Rothwell as Director of National Account Sales. Rothwell will focus on securing national fleet and rental business accounts, as well as helping the company grow its commercial segment.

Rothwell brings more than 30 years of industry experience and an in-depth knowledge of Kalyn Siebert product lines, commercial trailers and fleet/rental business account management. His prior work experience includes holding several Regional Vice President and Director of Business Development roles in which he maintained a focus on strategic growth for Fontaine Trailer Heavy Haul, Talbert Manufacturing and Manac Trailer.

A veteran of the U.S. Navy, Rothwell holds degrees in business administration from Troy University and Bevill State Community College.

“We are excited to welcome Jerry to the Kalyn Siebert team,” said Jake Radish, Kalyn Siebert President. “He has a proven passion and talent for building close customer relationships, which will be instrumental as we continue to serve our existing customers and expand our market share.”
